

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 13, 1882.

As nearer comes the loathsome scourge,
And ere it be too late,
Let every resident be
Compelled to vaccinate.
So when the Reaper grim appears,
With sickle at his back,
Let us be sure that he will find
No harvest in his track.

The following marriage licenses have been issued to colored persons since our last report:
Edward Mason to Rebecca Randolph.
George Rolis to Caroline Wheatley.
James Jorden to Susan Parry.

GEORGE FEGAN, who lives in Brown county, Ohio, several miles back of Aberdeen, on Thursday evening, intentionally shot himself and inflicted severe wounds. The rash act, it is stated was caused by his disappointment at not getting the price he expected for his crop of tobacco

We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. Otho Adams, at the residence of her husband in this city at four o'clock yesterday afternoon after a long illness. The remains will be taken to-morrow morning to Lebanon, Ky., for burial. The afflicted family have the warm sympathy of all.
